The Board of Education should allow all school schedules to begin at 9:30 am and end at 4:30 p.m. Teachers and students love this idea. First, school would be more enjoyable for both students and teachers. Second, ~~Students~~ students would have more sleep in order to learn. Last, this ~~seet~~ schedule would be healthier for students in the long run.

To begin with, school would be more enjoyable for students and teachers. With a good night's sleep, students will be in a better mood. Teachers will be able to control students better. This will allow teachers and students to get along much better. Also, no more students being late for class due to their moods.

Next, students ~~wt~~ would have more sleep, so they can learn. It's obviously a fact that students learn better when fully rested. When they get the chance to have a longer night's sleep then school grades will go up. Teachers won't have to worry about students sleeping in class. This will make students succeed in life.

Last, this schedule is healthier for students. This schedule will allow students to have more sleep for development. Student ages range in the low ages, so they need all the sleep they can get.

To conclude, the Board of Education should allow all school schedules to begin at 9:30 am and end at 4:30 p.m. First, school would be more enjoyable for students and teachers. Second, students would have more sleep to learn. Third, this schedule ~~wt~~ would be healthier for students of all ages. Overall, this new schedule would benefit young ages from health to

Score Point: 4

This response reflects proficiency in persuasive writing skills. The response is competently organized and developed. The writer clearly takes the position favoring a change in the school schedule. Key ideas to support this position are provided (school would be more enjoyable, students would have more sleep, and it would be healthier for students). However, the idea that the schedule would be healthier is not fully developed. Adequate facility in the use of language is displayed.
